MISSION STATEMENT

Welcome to the 8th edition of the Porn Film Festival Vienna!

What began in 2018 with the question “What is Porn?” has evolved into one of Austria’s most vibrant cultural gatherings, offering a critical and celebratory space to explore sexuality, desire, identity, and politics through film and art. With each passing year, we have grown—not only in size but in perspective, depth, and connection. In 2025, we continue this journey with a powerful, diverse, and forward-looking program that dares to imagine a more inclusive, sex-positive future.

This festival is built on the belief that pornography is not just entertainment—it is culture, it is politics, it is art. Porn reflects our society, our bodies, our needs, our fears—and it deserves to be treated with nuance, creativity, and respect. Through feminist, queer, and non-heteronormative lenses, we aim to challenge taboos, question stereotypes, and push the boundaries of visual storytelling.

The 2025 edition embraces diverse ideas: the intersection of sexuality and new technologies such as AI; intergenerational dialogue and the bridging of digital gaps; and the re-humanization of erotic experiences in an age of disconnection. As we move deeper into an era shaped by virtual encounters, we are committed to remembering the real, the physical, the emotional. We invite our audience to reconnect—with themselves, with others, and with the radical potential of ethical, artistic pornography.

The PFFV is a cultural meeting point: a place for celebration, education, and transformation. We honor artistic integrity, consent, and diversity. As part of this year’s festival, the second edition of The Porn Gala will shine a spotlight on outstanding achievements in ethical, feminist, and independent adult cinema—bringing together filmmakers, performers, and guests for a night of celebration, red carpet glamour, and unapologetic joy.

Join us in shaping the future of porn as a space of creativity, rebellion, inclusion, and collective imagination. Let’s stay curious, stay loud—and stay proud.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Porn Film Festival Vienna is in the process of making screenings and events more accessible. We recognize this as a long-term commitment and are actively working to ensure that this and future editions of the festival are increasingly more accessible and inclusive, particularly for disabled audiences. Our goal is to be transparent and provide clear information so each visitor has the agency to make informed decisions about how they can engage with the festival in a way that best suits their access needs.

For detailed information on all festival venues, including accessibility and on-site specifics, please visit the “Accessibility” section on our website. Additionally, you’ll find there further insights into our efforts to create an inclusive festival experience.

We are exploring new formats and constantly working to develop and improve our accessibility. We welcome any feedback, questions, or concerns regarding accessibility and encourage you to reach out to us at access@pffv.at.

EXHIBITION

SEXY SOLIDARITIES – Bodily Autonomy, Trauma and Protest

An exhibition of the Porn Film Festival Vienna in cooperation with ÖH.akbild and Kunst im Keller.

“Sexy Solidarities” is an art exhibition that explores how extreme situations—like social injustice, conflict, and violence—can deeply affect our bodies, identities, and the way we see ourselves. It focuses on themes such as sexuality, bodily autonomy, and identity, while also looking at how digital spaces, which are everywhere in our lives today, can distort or erase real human experiences. This exhibition aims to create a space where these ideas can be challenged, and where authenticity, healing, and the full complexity of being human can take center stage.

We invite artists to dive into these themes and share how their work challenges norms, offers fresh perspectives, or even creates guides for healing—especially in the context of consensual and empowering sexual experiences. How can we show solidarity in ways that feel bold, inclusive, and yes, even sexy? How can we imagine and build better sexual futures for ourselves and our communities? What do these futures look like to you? Whether it’s through feminist utopias, pleasure-focused visions, or other radical ideas, we want to open up the space for exploration, questioning, reimagining. It’s a space for art that sparks conversations, empowers individuals, and helps us envision new ways to connect, heal, and thrive together.

Curated by Jasmin Hagendorfer, Lars* Kollros, Sophia Oberrauch, Maxim Himmelspach
